RE: 2nd Annual Kentucky All Airborne Days

Fellow Trooper,

We are pleased to announce that the 2nd Annual Kentucky All Airborne Days event is set. After the success of last two events we are excited to be hosting the 2nd Annual event the weekend of 13-15 April, 2012. Hopefully it will be bigger, but that depends on you coming out and supporting your airborne community. The 55 folks that came to the last event had a wonderful time, and I'm sure you will too. Most of us had never met before, but after a few minutes it was like we had known each other for years. That is the magic of the Airborne. We all shared the same risk, stepping into the unknown.

You will find a registration form attached to this letter, and registration is just $50.00 per person. The weekend will be at the Holiday Inn University Plaza (same as last year), Bowling Green, Kentucky and will run from one o'clock Friday till noon Sunday the weekend of 13-15 April, 2012. Rooms are $82.00 + 13.42% taxes a night. The special $82.00 rate is good for the 12-15 April, 2012, for those that wish to arrive early. A hospitality room and dinner are included in your registration fee. We selected Bowling Green for the 2nd Annual Kentucky All Airborne Days because of its central location to most of our membership, and it should be a fairly easy drive. Anyone that plans on flying in should fly into Nashville, TN. You must make your own travel arrangements to Bowling Green which is an hour to a hour and a half north of Nashville on I-65.

This event is open to any man or woman that served as a paratrooper, or Gliderman. Not just 82nd and not just Army, any and all paratroopers are welcome. You don't have to be a member of our organization, just have been a paratrooper, or Gliderman. Please share this with any paratroopers you may know.

'AIRBORNE ALL THE WAY!'

Thank you, hope to see you there!
